Computer Security Quiz

1. Define Malware

2. The three most common types of malware are:

    1)

    2)

    3)

3. A file ending in .exe is
    a. Music
    b. A document
    c. A program
    d. An email attachment

4. You should (circle one) never / always / sometimes respond when you get an email from your bank asking you to confirm your security information.

5. The rule of thumb for computer security is
    a. The Internet is generally trustworthy
    b. If something looks suspicious, do not open it
    c. Beware of everything
    d. Always trust what the antivirus tells you

6. Fill in the blank:

    Your _____ reputation has _____ implications.

Answers   -2-

1.   Malicious software. Covers a wide variety of threats.

2.   Viruses, Spyware, Rootkits

3.   c. A program

4.   Never

5.   b. If something looks suspicious, do not open it

6.   Your online reputation has offline implications.