KENDALL LIBRARY
609 N. Eldridge  Houston, Texas 77079

April 2020 Update

Summary: The Kendall Library was damaged by rising flood waters during Hurricane Harvey. Approximately 48”+ of flood waters entered the entire first floor. The first floor, the roof, siding, furniture and content were affected by the storm. Flood water remained in the building for up to two weeks without air conditioning or power.

Architect: Robert Adams, Inc.
Contractor: TBD
Construction Budget: TBD
Current Phase: Design / Flood Mitigation Design
Next Phase: Permitting / Construction
Past 30 Days: Design and Flood Mitigation proposals.
Next 30 Days: Continue with Design and Flood Mitigation Design. Finalize Mitigation Plans.